Tampa Bay Homeschool Conference & Expo

February 6, 2010 9:00 A.M. — 4:00 P.M.

"We are delighted to open our doors to everyone in the homeschool community looking for a venue where they feel safe and welcome"

Julian Garcia, Jr.,
Executive Director , UACDC

Homeschool vendors, speakers and families from all over Florida will participate in the 1st annual "Tampa Bay Homeschool Conference & Expo", a celebration of homeschooling in the Tampa Bay area. University Area Community Development Corporation, Inc. (UACDC) and Prodigy Homeschool Arts are sponsoring the event at the University Area Community Center Complex. Colleges and Florida Virtual School will be available to discuss specific homeschool needs and enrollments. Vendors include HSLDA, Apologia Educational Ministries, FPEA, Lifetime Books and Gifts, Excellent Quests, Prodigy Homeschool Arts and many others. For a complete up to date list refer to our website and facebook.

FREE Session

Kim Coley, FPEA District 5 Director, will present a Homeschool Orientation for all homeschooling families, presenting the requirements and responsibilities of homeschoolers in Florida. This session will provide a refresher for current homeschooling families as well as provide beneficial information for those families new to homeschooling. Ms. Coley's lecture will be held in a private section in the complex; therefore, no admission fee is required to attend this session.
